Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

With a view to obviate the delay in disposal of cases, the Chief Justices' Conference, 2006 resolved that the High Courts may consider devising a suitable mechanism to provide for the termination of stay of proceedings before the trial court, after the expiry of a reasonable period, unless extended for adequate and special reasons.

Though the draft Rules in this respect were published in the Kerala Gazette No. 25 dated 19th June 2007, no objection or suggestion were received within the time limit specified. Therefore, the High Court, considering the matter in all its detail, decided to amend the Rules of the High Court of Kerala, 1971 by way of incorporation of a new Chapter VIII A with new rule 97A.

The notification is intended to achieve the above object.
